

Singaporean Residents'

Year End and Lunar New Year Travel Spending

Hit New Highs

Singapore residents continue to prioritise travel, with outbound spending surging in December last year, as well as the recent Lunar New Year holiday week

SHOPPING AND DINING REIGN SUPREME:

MALAYSIA, JAPAN, AND THAILAND LEAD, CHINA EMERGES:

Malaysia, Japan, and Thailand maintain their positions as the top travel destinations for Singaporeans.

MALAYSIA

JAPAN

THAILAND

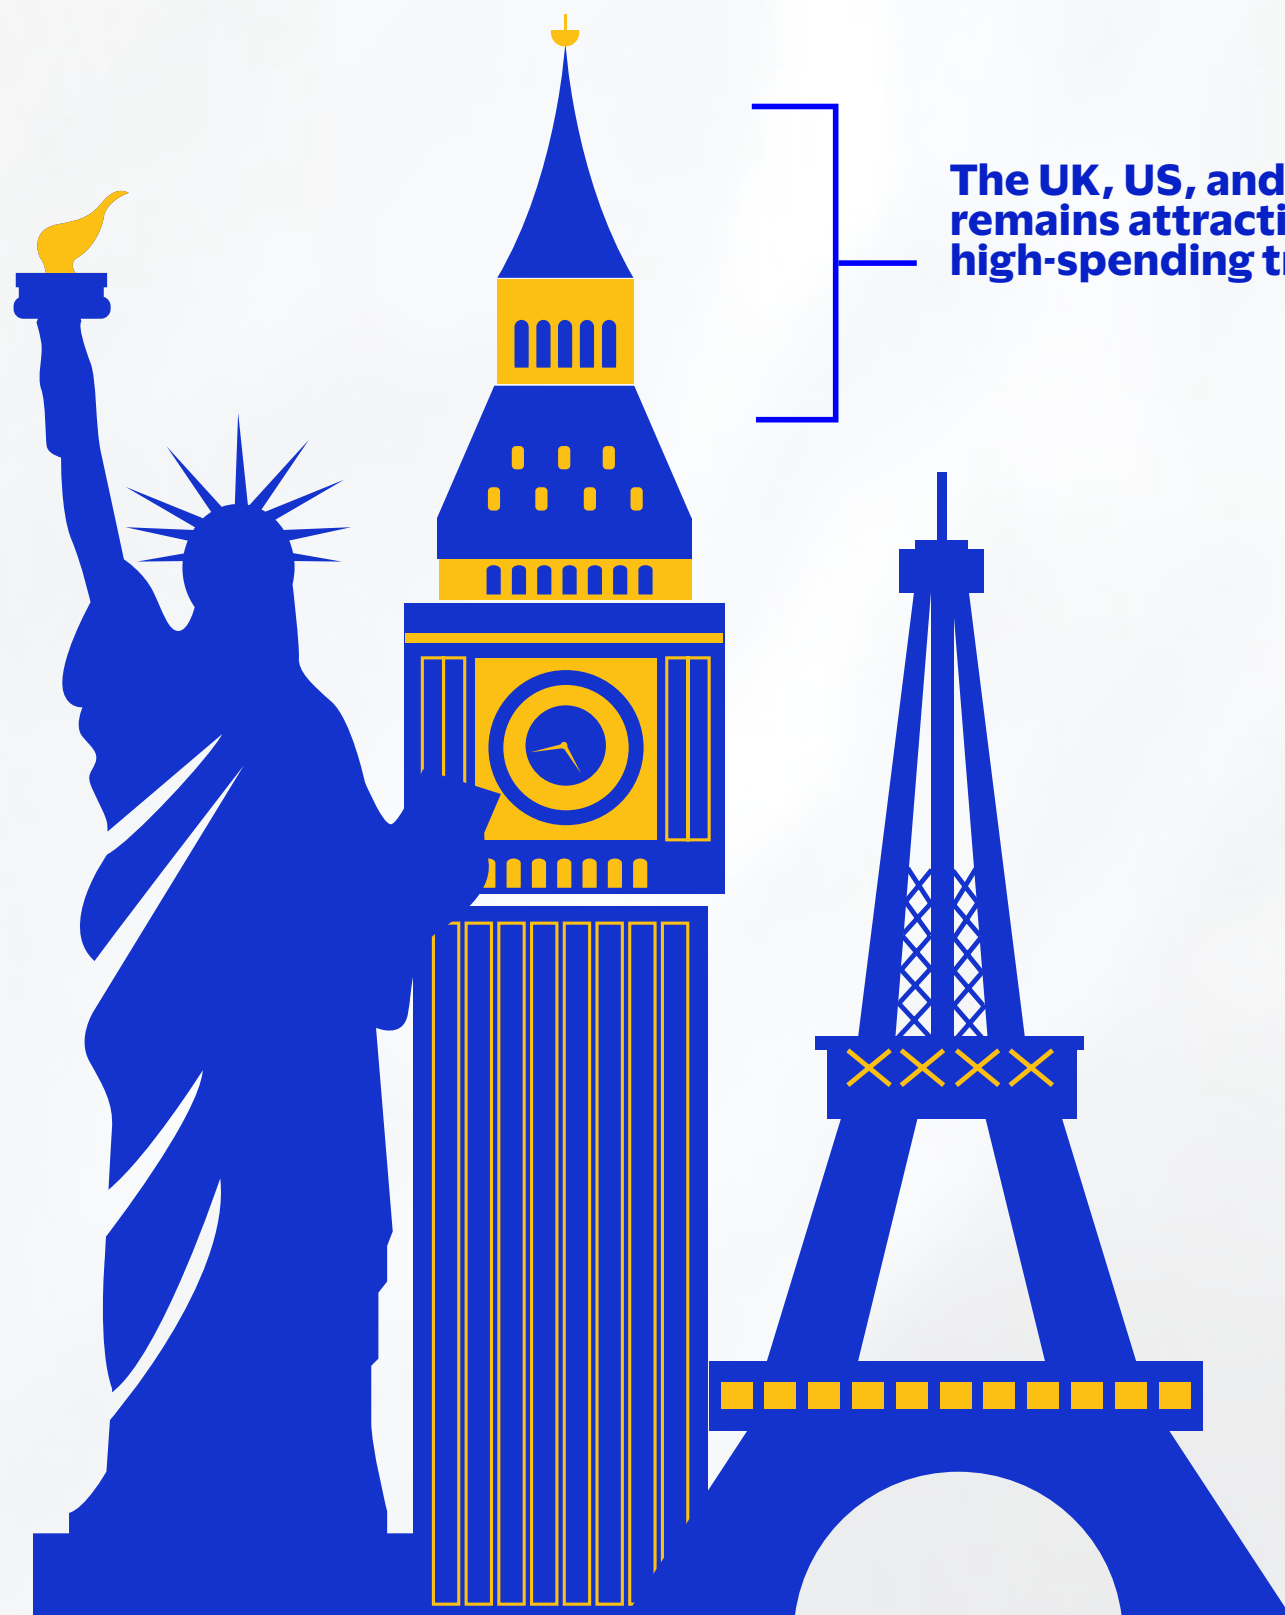

Cross-border spending in China surged by 86%

year-on-year, attributed to the introduction of visa-free travel.

EVOLVING DESTINATION PREFERENCES:

The UK, US, and France remains attractive to high-spending travellers.

South Korea and Thailand are emerging as key destinations
for medical tourism,
with South Korea
recording a

58%

rise in healthcarerelated travel spending.

SOUTH KOREA

THAILAND

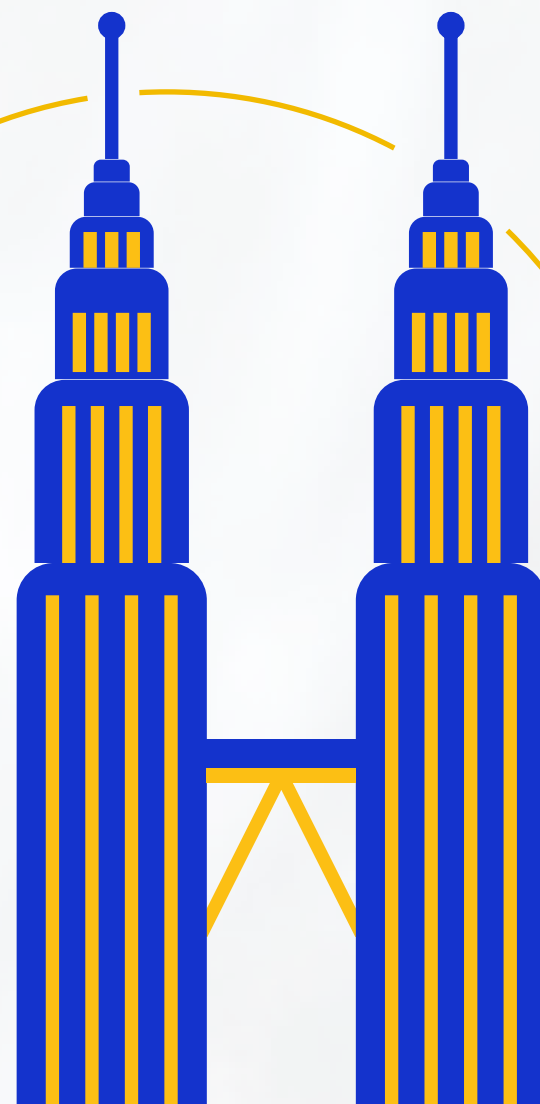

STRATEGIC TRAVEL PLANNING:

LUNAR NEW YEAR TRAVEL BOOM:

Cross-border spending during the Lunar New Year holiday week saw a significant spike, with a 22% growth compared to the week of Lunar New Year in 2024.

Malaysia continues to be the preferred destination during Lunar New Year, with a 57% growth in payments volume.

Jewellery store spending in Malaysia during Lunar New Year surged by over 220% likely driven by gifting traditions.

Japan remains a top destination, with cross-border spending up 36% during the ski season.

Thailand's healthcare-related spending saw significant growth of 59%

Indonesia emerged as a popular destination, taking the fourth spot.